EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Timothy E. Levstik on 8-7-2009.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1 line 17, after "emits" insert --, prior to verification that a sensed finger print is from an authorized user, --.

In claim 14 line 24 after "portion" insert -- of the --.

In claim 15 line 16, after "area" insert --, prior to verification that a sensed finger print is from an authorized user, --.

The changes correct a typographical error in claim 14 and insert a limitation from claim 14 into claims 1 and 15 so that the independent claims are consistent. The examiner initially contacted Mr. Levstik on 08-05-09 and discussed the amendment with Mr. Levstik and (inventor) James J. Fitzgibbon later that day.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Hsu includes a transmitter at the door for sending a time varying or rolling key to a receiver at the transmitter that differs from applicant's claims that have been amended to include the limitation of the fingerprint circuit verifying authorized users without transmitting a signal to the transmitter. Gullman discloses generating a time varying code at the transmitter without transmitter at the receiver side, but Gullman combines the time varying code with a correlation factor indicating validity of the fingerprint. Thus, the changing combined authorization code of Gullman, as in Hsu, is not transmitted prior to the verification that the sensed finger print is from an authorized user as claimed. Bailey (US 6175923) discloses transmitting a portion of a fingerprint and a time stamp, but lacks combining and separating the separate codes and lacks learning mode. Therefore, the references taken individually or in combination do not teach nor fairly suggest applicant's claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
